MALE ABUSE AWARENESS WEEK –

by Bill Murray

Its male abuse awareness week, and we'll be centering our celebration of it on a LIVE ON LOCATION broadcast from San Diego on Monday night (starts at a special time, 9pm EST, so 6pm PAC). The sold out event is a fundraiser for the host organization, the PLunaFoundation, where the primary interest is in helping young men ages 18 to 35 (Help4Guys.org). Donations collected are devoted to off-setting the cost of Internet-based counselling with therapists who interact with these men over SKYPE. Following the broadcast, I've been asked to appear as the Keynote speaker. I'm delighted to do this, and we look forward to future ON LOCATION shows and speaking engagements across the country.
